This says it all...

"...First, let me say that I am so happy to have "found" you and your agency. You and your staff have been very accommodating to my firm's requirements and I appreciate the "extra mile" that your agents go with respect to the various requests received from myself, my staff, as well as the clients that we are referring to you. I am confident that this relationship will last well into the future and have no hesitation recommending your firm to others. I really look forward to building a lasting relationship, not only for our seminar business, but also for our personal and corporate business. I believe our relationship will be very lucrative and am so far very impressed with the service we are receiving."

For Business...

Meetings, Conferences and Conventions:

Customized programs for your company or organization.

Many meeting planners lean toward self-contained resorts or cruise ships where the meeting facilities are first class and big-city distractions are out of range. But, perhaps you prefer the hustle and bustle of Las Vegas. Or maybe you're working with a strict budget and need cost effective options rather than glitz and glamour.

Our favorite venues around the world specialize in small to large meetings, conferences or conventions. Montrose Travel will handle all the travel, food and beverage, meeting space, audio/visual, social events and activities for you. You, finally, can concentrate on your program rather than worrying about the details behind the scenes.

Experience: We've been handling meetings and conventions since 1973 and know how to negotiate and execute custom travel programs for all types of groups. Our advice alone will be very valuable to you!

Flexibility: We'll work with you to accomplish your objectives. No pre-packaged programs to fit into.

Buying Power: Our $110+ million volume will save you money

Travel Industry Clout: Capitalize on our strong relationships with airlines, hotels, cruise lines, car rental companies and more for special treatment

Attention To Detail: We'll treat your program as if it were ours down to the smallest, but most critical details

One Call Does It All: You won't have to work with several companies to produce a successful event. We can do it all for you.

By Your Side Service: We'll be with you on-site to execute the program as planned*

Cost: None to your organization

* Minimum number of participants required.

Montrose Travel Benefits:

Save Time: Avoid the time consuming tasks of researching and selecting a location

Or Recognition and Sheer Pleasure...

Motivate

Sales Personnel – Dealers – Retailers – Distributors – Non-Sales Personnel – Consumers with travel

Motivating your key people to accomplish your organization's goals can be a challenge. Incentive travel has a number of built-in qualities that make it superior to cash or premiums. It's...

...Memorable: Ultra deluxe travel combined with recognition and once-in-a-lifetime experiences, can never be purchased by the recipient.

...Promotable: Few awards can be romanticized as easily or convincingly as a luxury trip.

...Flexible: Travel awards can be given to a group or team or to reward individual performance.

...Enviably: A coveted travel award is recognition for superior performance.

If you're planning an incentive travel program, Montrose Travel's expertise will help you achieve peak performance.

*After all, it's all about performance.

The Benefits...

Group Incentive Trips:

- Camaraderie and team-building with co-workers
- Lavish social events – parties, banquets, awards ceremonies
- Group recognition
- Tournaments, competitions, golf clinics
- Bragging rights back at the office!
- Montrose Travel representative on site to ensure the trip runs smoothly

Individual Incentive Trips:

- Flexibility – award winners can go where, when and with whom they choose
- Motivates a wider target audience
- Can bring the whole family
- Experienced travelers don't have to go to the same place twice
- Employees aren't out of the office at the same time
- Generally costs less than group trips
- Less work involved for the planner
